Theme "Leadership Through Membership" Torrance B&PW Club Installs New Officers

Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club installed its new officers at a dinner meeting March 18 at the Mariner's restaurant. Conducting the installation ceremony was Mrs. Cravens Douglas, state federation president.

Assuming the presidency of the local club was Mrs. Rae Reinman, who has served as treasurer, recording secretary, corresponding secretary, public relations and publicity chairman, since joining the club in 1959. Mrs. Reinman has served as deputy clerk with the South Bay Municipal Court since 1956. For three years prior, she had worked in a clerical position with the Nursing Department of the Harbor General Hospital.

Mrs. Reinman and her husband moved to California from Chicago in 1947. Before moving to Torrance, she worked with the Arts and Crafts Corps of the Red Cross and was assigned to the occupational therapy clinics at the Sawtelle Veterans Hospital.

During the past year, the new president served on the B&PW committee which organized the new Redondo-Marina B&PW.

Installed with Mrs. Reinman were Flora Hammetman, first vice president; Ruth Johns, second vice president; Alice Shaffer, corresponding secretary; Fleda Baker, recording secretary; Helen Giza, treasurer; Veva Robinson, auditor.

The new president's theme "Leadership Through Membership," will stress gains in membership, attendance by members at the Leadership Development classes, Section and District meetings.

Special guests at the club's installation were Gwen Boling, first vice president of Sierra Mar district; Betty Jean Rich, district membership chairman; and guests from neighboring B&PW clubs.

Greet New Neighbor At Coffee

Mrs. Thomas Brentlinger, a new resident from Lowellville, Ky., was honored at a "welcome" coffee given Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Jeanne Anderson on Anza Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Brentlinger and their three sons, Terry, 3, Kevin, 2, and Keith, 1, are now at home at 22703 Anza Ave. Mr. Brentlinger is employed by Harvey Aluminum.

For the party for the newcomer, Mrs. Anderson had decorated her dining table with the St. Patrick motif. A cake in the green and white centered the table.

Neighbors invited to meet Mrs. Brentlinger were Mes. Betty Steinke, Betty Nelson, Irma Huntington, Joe Woods, Beverly Morgan, Becky Schaeffer, Jeanne Penrod, Virginia Albin and Vera Tubken.

MAPLE-PEACH SYRUP ← Good Idea!
1 can (1 lb. 13 oz.) cling peach slices
1 cup maple-flavored syrup
2-3 tbsps. butter or sausage drippings
Drain peaches. Heat syrup with butter to simmering. Add peach slices and heat. Serve over pancakes or waffles.
Cling peaches hold their shape and sunny color during heating!

Auxiliary Will Hear Noted Lawyer, Author

A noted woman lawyer and author will address the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary on the subject of "My Yesterdays and Your Tomorrows" at noon Thursday, March 28, at the Pen and Quill Restaurant, Manhattan Beach.

She is Mrs. Kemper Campbell. Her recent book, "Here I Raise Mine Ebenezer" is on best-seller lists across the nation.

In her legal career, she was the first woman to be a Los Angeles deputy district attorney, and has served as legal counsel to the Los Angeles Planned Parenthood Association.

MRS. K. CAMPBELL . . . To Speak Here (Herbert Bruce Cross)

Her law background also included service as a professor of medical jurisprudence during her 40 years of law practice in Los Angeles with her husband, the late Kemper Campbell. Mrs. Campbell twice turned down appointments to the Superior Court.

She now lives on her family ranch in Victorville since retiring from law practice 10 years ago.

Prior to the luncheon and Mrs. Campbell's talk, the Auxiliary will have a short business meeting and social hour, according to Mrs. Paul D. Yates, program chairman.

Plan Bus Trip
Rosecrans Ramblers, senior citizens, will sponsor a chartered bus trip again this year to the Wild Flower Show at China Lake, on April 6.

The bus will leave 154th Street and S. Van Ness about 8 p.m. for the sightseeing trip. Stops will be made enroute for camera fans to make pictures.

For further information write Mrs. Elsa Stone, P. O. Box 492, Torrance.

Former Residents Greet Grandchild

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Howard of Midwest City, Okla., who lived in Torrance until 1958, will be interested in the birth of their grandson, Oct. 2, in Oklahoma.

Parents of the baby are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clark of Midwest City. Mrs. Clark is the former Kay Howard, who attended Torrance High School.

The baby, born at the USAF Hospital, Tinker AFB, has been named Richard Dean.

The Clarks and their son are living at 112 W. Turnbull Dr., Midwest City, Okla.

Auxiliary Plans League Dance

Torrance Central Little League Auxiliary held its second monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Dale Burbaker, the new president, on March 19, at 8 p.m.

Plans were made, under the direction of Mrs. William Steinberg, chairman, for the annual Little League dance to be held at American Legion Hall on April 20. Les Tronier's orchestra will be featured. Mrs. Herbert Dugar will be in charge of tickets.
